

FIRST NATIONS HEALTH COUNCIL

First Nations Interim Health Governance Committee

AGENDA

DAY ONE - MORNING

Prayer to Call Upon Our Ancestors

Introductions:

- FNIHGC Co-Chairs
- Political Leaders and Senior Health Leads

Power Point Presentation of Health Governance:

- Vision, Development and Governance
- FNIHGC administrative arrangement with Canada and BC to support BC First Nations health governance issues

Potential outcomes:

- Determine how BC First Nations will work together
- To seek BC First Nations support and establish effective communication
- Select one person from each region as a member on the FNIHGC and establish role of regional and provincial caucus
- Determine a BC First Nations political negotiations mandate for the FNIHGC

DAY ONE - AFTERNOON

Plenary and Breakout Groups

Understanding health and governance:

- What are current FNIH management issues and challenges?
- What are links between BC First Nations governance and delivery of health services?
- How can FNIHGC to establish a beneficial administrative arrangement with Canada and BC to support BC First Nations standards of health and governance?

Prayer to Thank Our Ancestors

DAY TWO - MORNING

Prayer to Call Upon Our Ancestors

Brief overview of DAY ONE

Plenary and Breakout Groups

BC First Nations capacity to work together:

- Working together within your region scope
- Working together with other regions

Select a member for FNIHGC:

- How do we establish and confirm caucus role, principles and linkages to BC First Nation communities?
- How do we decide on one person to represent each region and as a member on the FNIHGC for a total of five members?

DAY TWO - AFTERNOON

Plenary and Breakout Groups

Affirm commitment to work together:

- Provide direction and develop a statement for a political mandate to negotiate a health governance framework with Canada and BC
- Understand and support the political negotiations mandate for the FNIHGC

Next steps:

- Determine a meeting date for a meeting of the First Nations Interim Health Governance Committee
- Summary report for each region and for overall Regional Caucus Sessions
- Summary document of political negotiations mandate for the FNIHGC

Prayer to Thank Our Ancestors

Regional Caucus Session